

I have read with dismay about the NAB's petition 04-160. I must say that as a subscriber to XM radio, I am strongly opposed to this petition. I am paying for this service. I find the information extremely valuable and timely. What right does the NAB have to limit what I can hear on a service I pay for. This is nothing but an attempt to limit competition and it is against what this country stands for.